A DEADELICAL ATTEMPT AT HOMICIDE.—A Mess cases his Embreden-Law and Founds him Mortally. Not the Color of Violock this morthing, an atternation control between George W. Bennett and Enosh lett drew his revolves and shot Ward, inflicting, it is supposed, a fatal wound.

Dr. Morgan was immediately summoned to the assistance of the wounds many who, after probing the wound, was unable to find the ball. Ward is still in a languishing condition. Dr. Morgan has ordered that he be kept quiet, as he intends making y further examination this afternoon. Bennet was arrested by Patrolinan Gilson, and lodged in Jail to awant a hearing.

The shooting occurred in a stable belonging to Bennett, situated in an alloy between Ninth and Tranth and D and E streets. Bennett was formerly attached to the Garibaldi regiment, but has been out of the service for some time past. Both Bennett and Ward were, up to this sad occurrence, curged in the scalers' business. We understand that this was a continuation of an affray, which occurred nat might between the same parties, growing out of a money transaction.

An in-Stable-New or Prince Res.—Last night about ten o'clock, Lieutenant Wieman, with a despitement of the Righteenth Premaylvania cavalry, brought to this city about sixty rebel prisoners, captured mear Middleburg, about twenty miles beyond Pairfax Court House, by General Stable cavalry, in their rescent and successful recombisance under General Copeland.

They were brought into Fairfax on the 6th inst., whence they were sent to the city. Many of them are poorly clad, and otherwise in a most miserable are poorty qual, and otherwise in a most miserable condition. A portion of them were in citizens' garb. Along with them were brought one hundred herses and half dozen wagons, which were captur-ed by the name expedition. They were taken to Col. Baker's office, provost marshal of the War-Department, and after examination, were commit-ted to the Old Capitol.
